Source: The Mundell (Mundle) Family By Ruth Mundell Barry 1968

Abner Mundle was born in New Castle Co., Delaware, 27 April 1758 (Bible record; Revolution War papers). He died 8 May 1845 in Greene County, Pa. and was originally buried in a family cemetery on their farm near Willow Tree, Greene Co., not far from Garard's Fort on Big Whitely Creek, but some years later when the farm was sold, this family's graves were moved to the John Corbly cemetery, at Garard's Fort (gravestone). There is no doubt but that Abner Mundle was a son of James and his wife Margaret (Garrett) Mundle, even though he was not mentioned in his father's will, the wording of the will which states, "unto my loving children, those who have had no part of my land, all the rest of my movable property to be equally divided among them." Facts brought out by the pension application of Abner Mundle for services in the Revolution, the naming of his children in a Bible record still in existence, and the records of the Goshen Baptist Church, as well as other family data confirms the family relationship. Abner Mundle was married 9 Apr 1782 to Mary Barnhill, parents unknown, (probably in Greene County, Pa. at that time a part of Washington Co., Pa., records show he was serving in the Revolution in that area at that date). Howard L. Leckey, Greene Co., Pa., historian in writing his history of "The Tenmile Country and its Pioneers", gives us a lot of material for the early Mundell family. I shall not quote in his entirety, but will use portions of his material along with verified facts and family records. The pension record of Abner Mundel (photostatic copy, Pa. S22395, from the National Archives), shows application filed 3 Apr 1834 from Greene Co., Pa. Testimony was sworn to by James Mundell (brother), verifying the service of Abner. Abner Mundell stated he was drafted into the company of Captain William Crawford in the spring of 1781, and sent to a fort on Ten Mile Creek, where he served for a period of two months. His duty was to help protect the frontiers against the Indians. In 1779, he had volunteered to go against the Indians, on the Allegheny and Ohio Rivers and had gone to Fort McIntosh at the mouth of Beaver Creek on the Ohio. He served two months at the place, but troops destined for this campaign failed to arrive and the expedition was abandoned. This service was under Capt. John Huston in Colonel Brodhead's Regiment. He had also volunteered in 1778, in Capt. Crawford's company, and had gone to Wheeling to bring up some large boats to Pittsburg for the purpose of transporting troops of General George Rogers Clark's expedition to the Wabash River, this being the most service Abner Mundell had ever performed. In the same year he had been called out by Capt. Crawford for the purpose of quieting the Tories in Greene, Fayette, and Washington Counties, at which duty they had arrested upwards of 100 Tories. Abner and James both signed their names "Mundell." Abner said he had been born in New Castle Co., Dela., and was 76 years of age. (The Bible record shows this to be a slight error.) Proof of his service is also found in Pa. Archives, Series VI. Records from the Goshen Baptist Church shows that on 13 Oct 1786, Abner Mundel, Jonathan Mundel, and John Hart (usband of Margaret, their sister), were all baptised on that day. Abner Mundell died in Greene County, Pa., 8 May 1845. His will was dated 23 May 1837, and probated 13 May 1845 (Will Book 32:213, estate #1162). He names his wife, Mary, and the following children: John Mundell, Margaret Morris, Jean (Jane) Baily, Mary Launtz (Lantz), James Mundel, Abner Mundel, Hugh Mundel, Rebecca Hatfield, Nancy Cox, Eleanor Dye, Priscilla Tribby, Samuel Mundel, and Joseph Mundel. The youngest son inherited the home farm and continued to live on it until his death, 10 April 1882, and his wife, Mary, remained there until her death 17 Apr 1891. The name of Abner Mundle appears on numerous lists and census in the records of Washington and Greene Counties, Pa.

Not named in his father's will. Born April 27, 1758 and baptised at Goshen Baptist Church, October 13, 1786 with Andrew Mundell. His wife, Mary Barnhill was born April 17, 1764 and is mentioned in the will of Abner Mundell. This will, made May 23, 1837, was probated May 13, 1845. (Will Book 2 pp 213) From The Tenmile Country and Its Pioneer Families was a pillar of the church and was appointed "Singing Clerk" at both the Whiteley and Muddy Creek houses on October 15, 1790. In 1791 and again in 1795 he served his church as a messenger at the association meetings and in 1798 he was delegated to write the letter to the association meeting.

In 1792 he provided wine for communion. In the 1820 census he is listed as being engaged in manufacturing. In the tax list of 1822 he is listed as a wheelright. The 1798 Direct Tax List showed Abner owning and occupying a house 28 x 18" (valued at $80.00); also on his tract of 106 acres were a shop 20 x 18' and a barn 18 x 18' (total value $554.00). The Abner Mundel Bible says he was born April 27, 1758, he died in Greene County on May 8, 1845; he married, April 9, 1782, Mary Barnhill. Goshen Church records show that on October 13, 1786, Abner Mundel, Jonathan Mundel, Andrew Mundel, and John Hart, were all baptized on the same day. His wife, Mary Barnhill, was born April 17, 1764, and is mentioned in the will of Abner Mundel. This will made May 23, 1837, was probated May 13, 1845. (Will Book 2. pp. 213)

There is a great variance in the family records concerning James Mundell. Our most reliable source appears to be a letter received by Alice Mundell Demmon in 1931 that had been dictated by Jesse G. Mundell, then 64 years of age, living in Eureka, Ill. (Written by Miss Effie Mundell)

"My father Abner Mundell and three brothers, Samuel, Simeon and James and a sister Jane came from Pennsylvania, and I think, Greene County. They settled in central Illinois many years ago and raised their families. Abner Mundell had nine boys and one girl. Jesse Mundell born in 1867 was the youngest child, now aged 64 years. I have only one brother living, William Ira Mundell who is 66 years old, he lives at Point Loma, Calif., a suburb of San Diego. He can not remember his grandfather's name. My sister-in-law brought me an old Atlas of Woodford Co., Illinois where father and brothers settled. It says Samuel Mundell was born in Greene County, Whitely Twp., Pa., 21 Jan. 1815, his father James Mundell was born in the same Township, while grandfather Abner Mundell was born not far away on Little Whitely Creek. His father John (father known to be James) was a native of Wales and came to America with his father who located in Pa. in Colonial Times, taking up a large tract of land. In 1819 the father of our subject (James) moved to Ohio Co., Virginia, in 1827 he removed to Wayne County, Indiana near the village of Milton. He died in August of 1828. The maiden name of his wife was Esther Jones. Abner Mundell (brother of Samuel) my father, was born in Whitely Twp, Greene Co., Pa., 19 Oct 1816 and moved to Woodford Co., Ill. with his mother in 1835. Abner died 6 Nov. 1887. Abner Mundell, my father married Maria Clingman, who was born in Sciota or Ross County, Ohio. Her mother's name was Margaret Lewis Clingman, she was born in Northumberland Co., Pa."

Notes for Jacob Hatfield:

The parents of Jacob Hatfield have not been confirmed. It is unknown when he arrived in Western Pennsylvania. It is known that he was born in New Jersey. Based on this alone, I have always considered Jacob to be more than likely a descendent of Matthias Hatfield (Hetfield). A fellow researcher whom I have been in contact with through the years, had a partial genealogy from an old family Bible. This genealogy has Jacob as a son of Phebe Hatfield. In this genealogy, Jacob's birthdate and year matches with the information I had received from different sources. Jacob's father, however, is not listed in this genealogy. Several different Hatfield lines migrated to Western PA from NJ around the same time. All of these families have been connected to Matthias. One clue that may lead to eventual proof of Jacob's father is that he had a brother named John Ross Hatfield. According to Abraham Hatfield in his collection "The Descendants of Matthias Hatfield" (1954), a John Hatfield married Phebe (Phoebe) Ross. John was a son of Matthias Hatfield, a grandson of the original Matthias Hatfield. The author did not have any additional information on John. He did state that Phebe was a son of Thomas Ross. The Ross family and the Hatfield family have had connections for several generations. Based on this information, I believe that Jacob was the son of John and Phebe Ross Hatfield. Unfortunately, I have found nothing on John Hatfield. It is possible that he died in NJ and Phebe went to Western PA with his relatives. In this report, I have included John as Jacob's father. Further research may prove otherwise, but regardless, it does seem likely that Jacob descends from Matthias. Jacob was an active member in Goshen Baptist Church in Garard's Fort, Greene Co. PA. His wife's family (the Mundels) were very prominent members. For some unknown reason, Jacob was excommunicated from the church in 1853. The church was known for making sure her members fulfilled the complete desires of the congregation. Perhaps his marriage to a younger woman (Mary Jane Stone; a widow) after Rebecca's death was seen as inappropriate by the congregation. Jacob is buried in Carmichaels, PA along with both his wives, Rebecca and Mary Jane. His will is recorded below:

Will of Jacob Hatfield, No. 2268

I, Jacob Hatfield, of Monongahela township, Green County and State of Pennsylvania, being of sound mind and disposing memory do make and execute this my last will and testament hereby expressly revoking any other will or wills heretofore made by me. Item. To my beloved wife, Mary Jane, I give and bequeath the interest upon the sum of fifteen hundred dollars during life to commence immediately after my death. The principal of which sum to be invested by my executors in some safe security and the interest to be paid to her annually during life or oftener if she needs it, I also give to her one horse, one bed and bedding, one coverlid, ten dollars worth of cupboard ware if she desires it all of her own selection. Item. Upon the death of my wife Mary Jane I will and direct that the fifteen hundred which I have directed to be invested for her use be equally divided among my four sons, Abner, George W., Samuel and Hiram share and share alike, and in case any of them shall then be dead my will is that the share of such shall go to their children in the same proportion. Item. To my son, Samuel I devise the tract of land upon which he now resides near Jolleytown in this county. Item. Immediately after my death or as soon as circumstances will permit I direct that all my real and personal estate not devised as aforesaid be sold by my executors hereinafter named at public outcry and upon such terms as they shall deem proper. And I expressly authorize and empower said executors to make and deliver a deed or deeds to the purchaser or purchasers of the real estate as effectually as I could do if living. Item. Upon the settlement of my estate and after the payment of all my debts funeral expenses and other charges and the investment of the fifteen hundred dollars for the use of my wife, the balance I will and direct to be distributed as follows: 1.- To my son, Abner, one hundred dollars 2.- To my son, George W. one hundred dollars 3.- To my son, Hiram one thousand dollars 4.- To my son, Samuel three hundred dollars 5.- To the children of my son, John, dec'd five hundred dollars 6.- To the widow of my son, Cephas one hundred dollars 7.- The balance remaining after the foregoing devises and legacies are paid I will and bequeath to my son, Jacob. Item. I direct that my executors contribute a reasonable sum out of my estate towards repairing the grave yard on the farm of my son, Abner. I hereby nominate- appoint my son Jacob and Dr. John Laidley, of Carmichaels, Pa., executors of this my last will and testament. IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand to one sheet of page the twenty fourth day of May A.D. 1865. Jacob Hatfield, Senr Witnesses: C.A. Black and J. Phelan

Died in child birth?

Source: Barry, p.24

Family tradition says that upon the death of her daughter, Esther Mundell sent her son Abner with an ox team and wagon to Iowa City, where he took James Mundell Sells and Rachael Sells and returned them to Woodford County, Ill., where their grandmother raised them.

Notes for Anthony Simeon Sells:

Source: Sharon Lusk

Anthony died after the 1860 census. he is listed in Big Creek Twp, Johnson Co, IA, occupation listed as farmer. Anthony Sells' father is incorrectly given as Benjamin in the "History of McLean County, Illinois", pages 1173-1174. After Anthony's first wife died, his two children went to Illinois to live with their mother's parents, and lost track of Anthony, who apparently remained in Iowa. Descendants of James in Illinois have only rumor of what happened to Anthony after 1843. Family records of Mrs. Merle Harris indicated he may have been killed by Sioux Indians. The History of Whiteside County, Illinois, From Its Settlement to the Present Time; with Numerous Biographical and Family Sketches, edited by Charles Bent, mentions Anthony Sells on pages 245, 255-6, and 396. Page 245, "The Sells brothers emigrated from Ohio in 1836. Anthony settled west of the Elkhorn Creek, and afterward sold his claim to Elijah Wallace for $1500 cash. He then went further west and died. Benjamin sold his claim to John Galt, and then settled in Rock Island County, where he died a number of years age. Jacob, after building a frame house and making improvements, sold. He afterwards settled on Green River, in Bureau County, where he laid out a village called Tailhilt, and still lives there keeping a country tavern." The other pages just indicated that Anthony Sells settled with his brothers Jacob and Benjamin in Hopkins Township in 1835, and sold out in 1838. The History of McLean County, IL says that Anthony was "a miller by trade, put up a mill on the Iowa River, near Iowa City, which he operated for a number of years, and then pushed southwestward into Kansas, where he passed the remainder of his days." (Apparently this is also not quite true) Iowa marriage records (Book 2:155) shows "25 Oct 1849, Anthony Sells age 40 years, married Sarah Thompson, age 30."

Jacob Hatfield immigrated to West Virginia from Greene Co. PA in 1842. He is shown as the head of the household in Tyler Co. in the 1850 census record. From later census records, Jacob was in Ritchie County from 1860 until his death. Jacob F. Hatfield (brother to my great-grandfather Harvey Homer Hatfield) wrote the following about Jacob Hatfield in his memoirs (see notes on Jacob's son, Abner Hatfield): "...Shortly after marriage (to Wilhelmena Eberhart) they came to West Virginia and settled near Middlebourne in Tyler County. From there they came to Cairo (Ritchie Co. WV) and settled on a farm one mile south of Cairo on what is known today (1953) as the Old Hatfield Homestead. Here they lived until death called them away. Both rest in the Egypt Cemetary near their home. Grandfather was long prominent in public affairs. He served as Magistrate at the time Magistrates formed the County Court. He was a member of the body that organized the State of West Virginia. He and John P. Harris were the delegates from this county. He was threatened if he went to the Convention which met at Wheeling that he would go at the risk of his life. He armed himself and went to the Convention. He gave the ground for the Union Baptist Church near Cairo and was one of the chief builders and pillars. He also played a liberal part in the building of the Central Baptist Church near Goffs post office. The community in and about Cairo was the source of supplies of grain and food for the men and their animals who were building the railroad at the time. Hence it got the name Egypt from the Bible story of the Partiarchs going down to Egypt to buy grain. The railroad later established a station in the community and called it Cairo, and gradually the community became known as Cairo. At the present there are but few people speak of it as Egypt. However, the old cemetary (where Jacob is buried) is still known as Egypt Cemetary. During the Civil War he served as Captain of the Home Guards. When Jones, a Confederate Gernal, made his famous raid through this section of the state, destroying bridges, burning tunnels- which at that time were constructed of arched wood- driving away cattle, taking horses, and food for the Confederate Army, a detachment of this army passed through Ritchie County and destroyed bridges and burned all the tunnels, took many horses and cattle. Grandfather saved his team by keeping them hid in the woods but they took a three-year-old colt that belonged to my father (Abner). Grandfather and his son, Abner, took their guns and went into the woods across the river form his house. While there one day three Confederate soldiers came to his home and ordered grandmother (Wilhelmena) to get dinner for them. Grandfather could see them from where he was located in the woods as they prowled around the place looking for firearms or anything that could be of service to them. One of them took a paper that was behind the clock on the mantel, read it and then asked where Mr. Hatfield was and said he would like to see him. They thanked grandmother for their dinner and left. That afternoon grandfather and his son, while still remaining in the woods, went over to where they could see the railroad. There they saw a group of men standing near each other while one man appeared to be giving orders. They watched them for a while and then grandfather said 'Let's fire'. They did, and since the Confedertaes could not tell where the firing was coming from they mounted their horses and got away as quick as they could. After the close of the war my father married and began to look for a place to establish his home. At that time young men were being advised to go west and grow up with the country. So he decided he would go west to see the country with the view of establishing his home there. In company with his father they went to find a place he thought he would like to establish a home. They passed through Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois and saw many fine farms. They continued on into Missouri where they saw much fine laying land for sale but they didn't like the drinking water. After travelling about for some time they came one evening to the town of Sedalia, here they stopped for the night. While there, being weary from their travels and not too well pleased with the country, a young woman played an organ and sang "Home Sweet Home". She samg it so well it made my father homesick. The next morning he suggested that they go home. So that morning they started their trek back to their home land. Perhaps, if that girl had not sung that song that night, I might have grown up on a western ranch instead of among the hills of West Virginia. Soon after their return from the west, grandfather bought 400 acres of land in Murphy District for $4,000.00 and divided it into two farms of 200 acres each, and gave one to my father and the other to Uncle Tome Fordham, who was my mother's brother and whose wife was my father's sister. Here my father established his home."

Co, MO, daughter of Joshua Waggoner and Nancy. She was born 6 June 1837 in TN, and died 7 February 1905 in OK.

Notes for Charles Lott Lawrence Mundell:

Source: Sharon Lusk

He was reported to have served in the Southern Army, Civil War, and became an opium addict because of the wounds he suffered there, however we have been unable to prove the fact for either Charles Mundell or Lott Mundell. Steve Hull (phoenix1103@cox.net) says in an email to Terry Esvelt, "In an interview with a grandson (Leroy Ward) in Oklahoma a few years ago, Charles/Charley's nickname was Old Choc or Chock, could have been from Old Choctaw? He was a blacksmith. He was a slim man with a mean look on his face. He wore a long beard and had huge hands. Story is that some of Holland's Indian cousins came to visit and after a few days, Holland pcked her things and left Charlie." According to the June 23, 1880 census of Cooke Co, TX, the family lived in ED 116, and are found on page 40, line 20. Gainesville, TX is the county seat for Cooke Co. The following is learned:

Charles Mndell 45 PA-PA-PA (spelled Mondell or Mandell)

Holland Mundell 43 TN-TN-LA

William 18 MO-PA-TN

Thomas 14 MO-PA-TN

Mary 12 MO-PA-TN

Hattie 10 MO-PA-TN

James 8 MO-PA-TN (see Bowie Co, TX 1900)

John 6 AR-PA-TN

Prior to living in TX, they lived in Benton Co, Arkansas. By looking at the ages of the children and the state in which they were born, we know the Mundell family moved to Arkansas after 1872 and before 1874. However, a careful examination of the court records will reveal that Charles Mundell bought land in Benton County as early as October 1869. According to land records in Benton County, C. Mundell was the grantee of land from J. Wasson and wife (Grantors). This land is recorded in Book H, page 59 and is dated 27 Oct 1869. The land in question consisted of 60 acres of the NWNE Sec.04 and W, Section Township, Lot 3, Block 18, Range 29. Another record from the same book and page shows that Joseph and Susan Wawson (sic) rec. $450.00 from Charles Mundell for the NW 1/4 of NE 1/4 sec 4 (40 acres) and the W 1/2 of NW 1/4 of NE 1/4 sec 3, Township 18, North Range 29, West 29, the date of 22 Oct 1869. Also in Book H, p. 184, dated 20 Nov 1869 we found records of Charles and Hollin Mundell for $300.00 sold to Coleman McGarrah, the W 1/2 of the NW 1/4 of the NE 1/4 Section 3, Township no. 18 N of Range 29W (20 acres or less), and NW 1/4 of the NE 1/4 Section H in Twp 18, north of Range 31 (40 acres). Also in Book H, p. 169, dated 4 Jan 1870, James A. Mundell, the SW 1/4 of NW 1/4 of Section 10, Twp 19, Range 31 (40 acres) for $300.00. Lott and Holland are on the Choctaw Roll Card, MCR 5152.

Notes for Holland Wagoner:

Source: Sharon Lusk

Holland left Charles for a time as he was addicted to opium he was given for his injuries he received during the war (or so the family story goes) and he was abusive. The story goes that her Indian relatives came to the door one day and she left with them. I can't find his service record, so I am still looking to confirm the story.

James told Eula Stone Beard he had Scotch/Irish ancestry. He traded a pony for land in Graham - half of what he wanted, planned to buy the rest later, returned to MO to marry, back to TX in a covered wagon. Stopped for a year in Texarcana because of an Indian uprising (May born there). When they got to Graham, other half of land was sold.

Notes for Benjamin L. Mundell:

Source: Sharon Lusk

Ben was born on the James Sr. homestead 1.5 mi west of Antioch, IN. Ben and his first wife Emma lived on the farm adjoining that of his father. Their son Claude was born 15 Aug 1875. When the baby was about a year old his mother wanted to go to Iowa and live near her parents, who had moved there from Indiana. Ben sold his farm and took her, however he didn't like Iowa and wanted to return to Indiana. Emma wanted to stay, so Ben brought the baby and returned to Indiana. Ben's mother was widowed in 1855 and had married Paul Hueston Wright. Grandmother Wright raised Claude until Ben married Mary Lucy Holmes on 10 Sep 1882. They were the parents of twin daughters.

bolden@swbell.net (June 15, 1997)

Seeking further information on the family of John Maynard MUNDELL, born in Greene County, Penn., in 1840. He moved to Grafton, Neb. in 1884, then to the Black Hills, SD, in 1908. He died Jan. 28, 1917, at the home of his son, Sherwood W. MUNDELL, in Deadwood. His wife, Margaret McVICKER, died about one year before him, and his daughter, Grace Vernon (MUNDELL) HOSIER, died sometime between her marriage date of Dec. 24, 1904, and the death of her mother. I have her obituary, but no date. Other children were Albert E.

MUNDELL, Harry S. MUNDELL, and two daughters, Mrs. TAGGERT, and Mrs. M. F. MAHER. The first name of one of the last two daughters is probably Cora. Mrs. TAGGERT also preceeded her father in death. John MUNDELL was the brother of my great-grandmother, Eliza Jane (MUNDELL) GROVE. I have much old family info to share, including letters and pictures. ... Thanks, Carolyn Bolden

Notes for Abner Hatfield:

Source: <http://www.genealogy.com/users/h/a/t/Jeffrey-W-Hatfield/FILE/0001page.html>

Jacob F. Hatfield, a son of Abner Hatfield, compiled "Memoirs of Jacob F. Hatfield" in 1953 when he was 84 years old. Jacob writes of his father; "My father was a strong muscular man who labored all his life to clear and improve his farm, and he was a good provider for his family. He took no active part in politics and he never asked or held an elective office. The only appointive office he ever held were Election Commissioner and a Trustee of the local school in which he was always interested. He never failed to cast his ballot at an election. In his religious belief he was a Baptist. Since there was no Baptist Church near his home he had the Baptist minister come to his home and preach. I can well remember how mother used to get us children all clean up, the house in order, and everthing arranged for the services. All the chairs were brought into the main room and father would bring in benches and planks to place around the wall to make seats for the audience. Services were held alternatively at our home atn then at Uncle Tom Fordham's. Later on others became intersted and they decided to build a house to be used as a place to hold church services. My father, with a few of the neighbors, went to the woods, cut logs and hewed them on two sides and assembled them at the location upon to build the Church. The neighbors came in and they had a house raising such was common in those days. Grandfather Hatfield (Jacob) largely financed the project and was present at the raising of the house. The seats in the new building were made by using two poles on each side of the center aisles, in which holes were bored and wooden pins inserted for legs, and then planks were laid form one to the other. This arrangement served as the seat on which they sat sometimes for an hour listening to the preacher as he gave his sermon. He preached Heaven with all its beauties and Hell with all the horrors. Here we had Sunday School about three months each summer. Since the church was in the pasture field, sheep would crawl under it to keep cool. I well remember how they would run from under it, bumping their heads against the floor, when we would go into the church. In later years the house was weather-boarded and ceiling was placed on the inside, and new seats provided. A regular Baptist Church was organized and named Central Baptist Church. During many years that followed the church had a regular pastor who came once a month and would preach on Saturday afternoon and this was followed by a church meeting. Then on Sunday morning we would have Sunday School and preaching. Father served as a Deacon and was one of the chief supporters during his life-time. In this church he saw all his children converted adn become members of the church. Since his decease more than 25 years ago, his children have all established homes of their own and transferred their membership to other churches. The church has now been inactive for a number of years, but his influence, as well as that of the church, will still go on. He lived to see his farm become one of the most cherished farms in the community. Since his passing the farm has been sold and is now owned by the Goff brothers, who have stocked it with fine Hereford cattle."
